CAMP 2012

The Illinois School for the Deaf (ISD) is offering a Creative Arts Camp for children who are deaf or hard of hearing. ISD is located on a 55 acre campus in Jacksonville, Illinois and has excellent facilities with a well-stocked art classroom, deaf-friendly rhythm room, two computer labs and various classrooms for ASL activities. Participants will live in dormitories with two to a room on the ISD campus, eat meals in the cafeteria and practice various arts in various classrooms. The camp will open on Sunday June 17th after 1:00 p.m. and close at 1:00 p.m. on Friday, June 22nd.

GOAL

The camp's goal is to provide the participants the opportunity to improve communication and socialization skills while learning dance, art, technology and ASL expression.

Deadline for applying for the camp is May 15, 2012.

CAMP ACTIVITIES

During the day, participants will be taught a dance routine, create a mixed media art project, learn how to develop designs on a computer and participate in ASL expression activities. During the evenings, various recreational activities will be offered. An exhibition program will be held on Friday, June 22nd, beginning at 11:00 a.m. followed by lunch at 12:00 p.m. in our Huff Dietary.

COST

There is a $10.00 fee to cover the cost of a camp T-shirt. Children should also bring $30 spending money.

APPLICATION

Parents must complete an application prior to May 15, 2012. If an application is not included with this brochure, fill out the form on the next page and send it to Christine Good-Deal at ISD.

TRANSPORTATION

ISD will provide free transportation for campers coming to camp on June 17th if parents have previously requested it on the application. Parents may bring their child to the school after 1:00 p.m. on Sunday, June 19th. Parents are invited to lunch at 12:00 p.m. on Friday, June 22nd and must pick up their child by 3:00 p.m. on that day.
